Mr Lomax

Occupation – Behaviour Support
Manager

What people appreciate about me

Mr Lomax is approachable and easy to speak to. He is calm, supportive and friendly. Mr Lomax is always professional and willing to take on extra responsibilities. He's an excellent communicator and very organised.

What I find difficult

I can find it difficult when having a conversation with someone that is single minded and unwilling to look at other points of view.

What is important to me now

I'm really enjoying my job, learning more and picking up valuable skills in something that I particularly thrive on. My two children are extremely important to me and watching them grow into amazing young people is one of my proudest achievements.

Continuing to grow and develop myself whilst helping other people.

What I like

I like spending time with friends and family. I enjoy going to the movies and eating out, especially Italian food!

What I dislike

Pineapple on a pizza. People being rude on purpose. I don't like being lied to or not being told something I have a need or a right to know.

How to support me

If I'm having a tough time it's quite simple: all I need is a pat on the back and I'm good to go.

What is important to me in the future?

Continuing to develop my skills and abilities in order to help more and more people in a job I love. It's important to me to own my own house one day.
