

My One Page Profile

Joe Clark

Occupation: Art Instructor/PSW

What people appreciate about me

Joe is very reliable, cheerful and friendly. He is very skilled at cheering kids up when they are down. He sums things up concisely. He's creative and funny and always there when you need him to be.

What I find difficult

I need to retrain to update my ICT skills and I also need to improve my organisation skills.

What is important to me now

My family is paramount. I am really passionate about art. I also still enjoy being involved in the local rugby club. I love music and going to gigs.

What I like

I enjoy coaching rugby and spent nine years as a professional player. I enjoy taking my son to the local rugby club and seeing him getting into the spirit.

What I dislike

How to support me

Be calm, the way to act towards people is really important. I think manners are key.

What is important to me in the future?

Family well being.
